

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION & PAYMENT INFORMATION

Membership Profile

The Lake Naivasha Riparian Association is a Society that was founded in 1929 with a vision of enhancing the ecological integrity of Lake Naivasha – ‘a beautiful, diverse & productive wetland of National and International importance that supports sustainable development’, and also a Ramsar Site. Its membership comprises both land owners and members by association. All landowners bordering the lake act as stewards of the riparian land and are obligated to ensure its ecological integrity and that of the lake’s ecosystem is enhanced and maintained. Associate members constitute individuals and corporate bodies who don’t necessarily own land contiguous to the lake but are members by association.

Prospective members should follow the instructions provided below on how one can become a member of the Association.

1. Completely fill out and sign the Membership Application.
2. Completely fill out and sign the Payment Information document.
3. Submit both completed and signed documents via email to the Associations General Manager.

For application submission and or questions, please contact office@lnra.or.ke
